Ideas for College Students
Kindness Receiving Cards

Simple Thanks: Leave a thank you card with a Kindness Receiving Card attached for someone who works on campus that has helped make your life a little bit better. It may be a janitor, a faculty member, a mentor, or someone who helped you with financial aid.

Thank Everyone: Use Kindness Receiving Cards to thank a coworker who has covered a shift for you, a service worker who helped you, a teacher who helped you, and on and on.

Adopt a Soldier: Deployment is always a rough period in a service member’s career. Receiving packages from someone back home can uplift their spirits while they’re overseas. Adopt a service member and send a care package. Place a Kindness Receiving Card somewhere in the box to let them know how much you appreciate their sacrifice.

Advertise Kindness: Start a collage of encouragement and positivity in your dorm hallway and on your campus using the Kindness Receiving Cards.
